THE following Collection is the entire Library of the late Rev. Dr. Waterland, excepting some few Books, which being at Cambridge, were presented to Magdalen College.

Nothing is added to or diminished from this Collection ; and besides those expressed in the Catalogue, many useful Observations will be found in several of the Books and Pamphlets, which the Doctor's great Learning and Knowledge enabled him to add, as Heips to himself in his Studies, and without doubt, will be found no less to deserve the Attention of the Learned in general.

As the present Impression of Dr. Cave's Historia Literaria, was published under the immediate Care and Direction of Dr. Waterland, I cannot omit this Opportunity of acquainting the Publick, that the Second Volume is regularly carrying on, without any Delay, and now far advanced in the Press ; and will be finished with all possible Diligence and Dispatch ; that the Notes and References greatly increase in this Second Volume, and are the principal Cause that it cannot be published this Winter, as was intended ; in the mean time, the First Volume is ready to be delivered to the Subscribers, according to the Proposals ; and Gentlemen may be assured no Pains will be spared, nor Time lost, in forwarding the Publication of this Second Volume also, with the strictest Justice both to the Author and the Publick.

Eton, Feb. 1, 1741.

Jos. Pote.

N. B. The Subscriber's Names will be printed on finishing the Second Volume, and those Gentlemen that now subscribe, will have the First Volume delivered to them, according to the Proposals.
